

Step 1: In the process of using the system of the customer to use, MSB The order is prepared according to each project.

Step 2: In step 3, it is possible to use the digital code. If the correct conditions are met, all of the digital codes are downloaded.

1. Select the code to be used.
2. Select the digital code from the code table using the code to be used.
3. Click the "Download" button. "Download" button is located in the code table using the code to be used.

4. Select the code to be used - automatically adds the code to the code table.

MSB The changing of the system version to '1.0' will be automatically handled by the program with the Business app.