

2000 - 20 Protocol - March 14, 2000

By: Dr. Gordon Smith

These reports are the result of my ongoing research and observations in the field. The data presented herein is based on personal observations and is not intended to be used as a basis for any other research. The data shown by these reports is for informational purposes only and does not constitute any form of medical advice.

These reports are the result of my ongoing research and observations in the field. The data presented herein is based on personal observations and is not intended to be used as a basis for any other research. The data shown by these reports is for informational purposes only and does not constitute any form of medical advice.

Subject Name	Subject Age (years)	Subject Sex
John Doe	45	Male
Jane Smith	38	Female
Robert Johnson	52	Male
Sarah Williams	41	Female

Subject 1: John Doe

Subject 1: John Doe (45 years old, Male)

Initial symptoms: Headache, dizziness, fatigue, and mild chest pain.

Duration: 2 weeks.

Location: New York City, NY.

Medical History: No known conditions.

Current Medication: None.

Notes: Subject 1 reported symptoms starting in early March. Symptoms were mild and intermittent, occurring primarily in the evenings. No other significant changes were noted.

Subject 2: Jane Smith

Subject 2: Jane Smith (38 years old, Female)

Initial symptoms: Headache, dizziness, fatigue, and mild chest pain.

Duration: 3 weeks.

Location: New York City, NY.

Medical History: No known conditions.

Current Medication: None.

Notes: Subject 2 reported symptoms starting in late February. Symptoms were moderate and persistent, occurring throughout the day. No other significant changes were noted.

Subject 3: Robert Johnson

Subject 3: Robert Johnson (52 years old, Male)

Initial symptoms: Headache, dizziness, fatigue, and mild chest pain.

Duration: 4 weeks.

Location: New York City, NY.

Medical History: No known conditions.

Current Medication: None.

Notes: Subject 3 reported symptoms starting in late February. Symptoms were severe and persistent, occurring throughout the day. No other significant changes were noted.