

What is a Cervical Incompetence?

The cervix normally gradually weakens from the pregnancy hormones that stimulate it to dilate and allow the fetus to pass. It can sometimes be the case it weakens a little earlier than normal or doesn't strengthen back up after childbirth. This is known as Cervical Incompetence. The Tanner Clinic Cervical Incompetence Clinic can advise on how you can learn more about it and what you can do to protect your baby.

We also have a team who can advise on whether you are at risk of a CERVICAL CLIP. This can help to strengthen a cervix before a baby starts to grow and a very important step in protecting your baby's health.

What are the symptoms of CERVICAL CLIP?

The symptoms you experience when that occur will vary depending on how well you protect yourself. Sometimes you may experience bleeding or discharge from your vagina. The CERVICAL CLIP is available in some cases as well.

What are the benefits of a CERVICAL CLIP compared to a cerclage?

The main advantage of a cervical clip over a cerclage is that it is a less invasive procedure. Call us today or call us online if you are pregnant or trying to get pregnant.

What are the main risks of a CERVICAL CLIP compared to a cerclage?

Although the CERVICAL CLIP is a less invasive procedure, it does have some risks. Call us today or call us online if you are pregnant or trying to get pregnant. The CERVICAL CLIP is a procedure that is done before you get pregnant and when you are not pregnant. Call us today or call us online if you are pregnant or trying to get pregnant.