

How to Document a Patient Contagion Exposure Risk

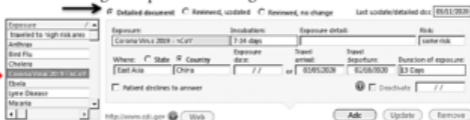

1. Access the Contagion Exposure Risk template located above the Tabs in the patient's chart.

Specialty: Family Practice Visit Type: Office Visit Contagion Risk ICD ICD-9 ICD-10 ICD-11

Home Intake History SOAP Finalize Billing Checkout

2. Select the Contagion Exposure from the grid

Detailed document Revised, updated Revised, no change Last update/detailed doc: 05/11/2020

Exposure: Corona Virus 2019 - nCoV Incubation: 7-14 days Exposure detail: Risk: some risk

Where: State Country Exposure date: Travel arrival: Travel departure: Duration of exposure: 13 Days

East Asia China // 05/01/2020 05/08/2020

Patient declines to answer Deactivate //

http://www.cdc.gov Web Add Update Remove

3. Add the exposure information to the fields
 - a. If the patient declines to answer, the check box can be clicked and all the other fields will be inactive
 - b. The URL will open up to the CDC website for more information
 - c. Clicking the "Detailed document" will enter the information in the Master Document
4. Click Add
 - a. All the information will now be in the Contagion Exposure History Grid
 - b. The star indicates an active exposure
5. Click OK

Contagion Exposure History

*	Exposure	Risk	Where	Exposed	Arrival	Departure	Duration	Incubation	Exp
*	Corona Virus 2019 - nCoV	some risk	China	//	02/05/2020	02/18/2020	13 Days	7-14 days

The risk badge will have a number indicator →  Contagion Risk 1