

1. Access the Contagion Exposure Risk template located above the Tabs in the patient's chart.

2. Select the Contagion Exposure from the grid

3. Add the exposure information to the fields
 - a. If the patient declines to answer, the check box can be clicked and all the other fields will be inactive
 - b. The URL will open up to the CDC website for more information
 - c. Clicking the "Detailed document" will enter the information in the Master Document
4. Click Add
 - a. All the information will now be in the Contagion Exposure History Grid
 - b. The star indicates an active exposure
5. Click OK

Contagion Exposure History

*	Exposure	Risk	Where	Exposed	Arrival	Departure	Duration	Incubation	Exp
*	Corona Virus 2019 - nCoV	some risk	China	//	02/05/2020	02/18/2020	13 Days	7-14 days

The risk badge will have a number indicator →  Contagion Risk 1