

The content of your app, or content, may be a page with text or a Web page with a form to go and do something else. In this case, you use the `Text` widget and `TextForm` widget, and you use `Text` widget to set up the text of the content. `TextForm` widget is used to create a form. All `TextForm` widget has a `text` property that you can use to set the text of the form. `TextForm` widget has a `text` property that you can use to set the text of the form. `TextForm` widget has a `text` property that you can use to set the text of the form.

Example

1. Create a new widget that is a `Text` widget. `Text` widget is a widget that is used to create a form.
2. Create a `TextForm` widget.
3. Use your widget to create a form with text. `TextForm` widget is a widget that is used to create a form. `TextForm` widget is a widget that is used to create a form. `TextForm` widget is a widget that is used to create a form.

4. Example (code sample) [1] of an app that uses a `Text` widget and a `TextForm` widget.

