

The content of your app, or contentID, is a unique identifier that distinguishes your app from other apps in the same category. You can use the contentID to identify your app in the app store and to track the performance of your app. The contentID is a unique identifier that distinguishes your app from other apps in the same category. You can use the contentID to identify your app in the app store and to track the performance of your app.

Requirements

1. Your app must be available for download on the App Store.
2. Your app must be available for download on the App Store.
3. Your app must be available for download on the App Store.

4. Apple ID is required: If you do not have an Apple ID, you will need to create one.

