

CANTHARIDIN TREATMENT

- A small drop of 0.7% cantharidin liquid was applied to treat lesion.
- Wash treated area 4-6 hours after treatment, or sooner if reaction or blister is seen.
- Lesion will usually blister, then resolve without scarring. Change in skin color may occur at site.
- Return for follow-up visit if new lesion develops. Should not retreat until first area has fully healed.

